

General Terms and Conditions

1. General

All services within the framework of our institute, hereinafter referred to as "organizer", are based on these "General Terms and Conditions".

2. Subject of the contract

The organizer offers holistic dance and movement events, workshops, seminars and trainings. The basic subject of the contract is the binding registration and booking of events, the rules on withdrawal and termination, as well as the general conditions of participation.

3. Registration / conclusion of the contract

A contract with the organizer comes about, by the transmission and confirmation of the completed and signed participation declaration (registration form) via the registration form on the website, by mail, or by email. Your registration is only valid when the deposit or the whole amount has arrived. Each participant will receive a confirmation of registration after receipt of his participation declaration / registration.

4. Cancellation conditions:

If you have registered for a workshop and have to cancel a participation, the following cancellation conditions apply:

- Cancellation more than 4 weeks before the event: we will refund the full participation fee, minus a 50.- Euro processing fee.
- Cancellation more than 2 weeks before the event: we will refund you 50% of the participation fee minus a 50.- Euro processing fee.
- Cancellation less than 2 weeks before the event, we cannot refund the participation fee, unless you name a suitable substitute participant.

If you have registered for a short workshop (max. 3 hours):

- If you cancel 48 hours before, the full participation fee will be refunded.

If you have registered for a single session

- In case of cancellation up to 48 hours in advance, the full participation fee will be refunded or the date will be rescheduled.

For ongoing events (trainings) specific participation and cancellation conditions apply.

In current situations such as Covid 19 measures, separate, especially announced cancellation policies apply.

Should we have to cancel an event due to important reasons (i.e. illness of the course instructor, in case of insufficient number of participants), Covid 19 measurements), the participant is entitled to a full refund of already paid seminar fees. In case of course cancellation, we cannot cover any costs for travel, accommodation etc.

5. General Conditions of Participation

The participants are solely responsible for their physical, emotional and mental health during the seminars, trainings and events. Participation in these events is voluntary and will release course instructors and venue hosts from all liability. The events do not replace psychotherapeutic, psychiatric or medical treatment.

The seminar instructor reserves the right at any time to refrain from cooperating with a participant and, if appropriate, to expel participants from the seminar. The course and full board costs will not be refunded in this case. Further claims are excluded.

6. In relation to the Covid19 pandemic:

The Holistic Dance Institute follows the official safety measures, all public regulations are observed. If an event should be cancelled due to a measure, the participation fee will be refunded either as a credit for another event or as the full amount of the participation fee. If one of the participants cannot attend due to illness, no money will be refunded, but there is a possibility for a credit note, as long as the cancellation has taken place before the start of the workshop.

Holistic Dance Institute

Sabine Parzer

Kirchenweg 9/3

3423 St. Andrä-Wördern, Austria

0043 676 724 1819

office@holistic-dance.